Eye-catching jumper that's also suitable for equitation. Won Level 8 Welcome Stake in 2006 with Aaron Vale, was 5th of 28 in the Fleur de Lis Jumper Derby this year with Matt Cyphert, and has been a reliable partner for his senior owner/competitor in between. Was also recently catchridden in first ever equitation classes to Top 4 prizes.

"Mexico" is confident and bold and will jump anything in front of him, including open water. Clean and athletic with a stylish front end over fences. He is naturally balanced, comfortable to sit, and easy to stay with. Has all the basic buttons including counter-canter and auto-changes. Nice, dependable horse that will take a joke and has plenty of scope to get out of trouble.

Mexico enjoys showing and is simple and fun to ride. He also loves being doted on and having a "mom". He is well-mannered with no vices; lives out at night with a buddy but has no problem being stalled for shows. Always popular with the show photographers and a fun, flashy partner for the aspiring equitation and jumper rider.
