Handsome, athletic and kind warmblood for hunters and equitation. "Jimmy" was 3rd in the Jr/AO Classic at Evergreen and ridden to win the 2008 WSHJA Good Seat & Hands Medal Final. He is attractive, stylish, and very willing to please.

Jimmy has a slow, smooth jump that's perfect for equitation and attractive in the hunter ring also. He is naturally balanced with a big, rhythmical step and easy frame that shows off his rider well. He is responsive, simple, and honest to the fences and able to jump well from any distance. Wears his ears and a bright, happy expression on course. Has changes, basic dressage schooling and counter-canter.

Smart horse that's willing to learn and aims to please; has a good brain and tries hard to perform as expected. Jimmy is reliable, well-mannered and gentle. Very impressive to watch and a quality partner for riders moving up to the Junior Hunters and 3'6"+ Medals. Owner off to college - Jimmy can be seen on the IHSA circuit in 2010.
